Memory Board

Over the next few months we would like to record some of your memories and photographs of The Centre.

If you have anything you would like to share you can either send a 'hard copy' to us at The Centre, email events@frodcomm.org.uk, post it on Facebook (Frodsham Community Centre or Frodsham Memories), or record a verbal conversation with a friend and send it to events@frodcomm.org.uk.

We cannot promise to display everything on the walls but would like to make a collection of albums for people to browse through when they visit the Open Day in October.

Your association and memories of The Centre may be most connected to a group you attend or a performance of the Panto or Players you came to, fundraising events or family parties. A couple of lines will do and if you have a photograph of yourself it can be part of the whole history and will add greatly to the story of The Centre.

You may appreciate it will be quite a task and if there is anyone out there who would like to help, do get in touch.

So get us started here are a few 'prompts'.

The monies raised will go towards the run T-shirt costs and our Golden celebrations in October.

SLIM PICKINGS

Liam Jones, Deputy Mayor of Frodsham, recently led his team of volunteer litter pickers around the Centre. They were impressed with how clean and tidy our Centre and grounds were, and made quick work of it.

Many thanks to them, our own staff and you for keeping it ship shape.

~ Frodsham Music and Arts Club ~

Established 1943 Registered Charity Number 1173654

Frodsham Music and Arts Club is delighted to welcome the Kell Wind Trio to the final concert of its 75th Anniversary Season. Replacing the unavailable Viska String Quintet, the Trio comprises members who play flute, clarinet and bassoon. They introduce the items and composers, and perform music ranging from Baroque to entertaining classical and light music of today. On this occasion they will be joined by talented harpist Alice Roberts, for what promises to be an exceptional evening of music.

Do join us at 7.45pm on Friday 17 May at the Community Centre. Guest tickets at the door are £10.

Please contact Jane Mooney for further information: 07763 766162
