Happy New Year! Did you know that 2025 is the year of the snake and people born this year are considered rational, calm, thoughtful, and loyal to their loved ones?

We start January with a very busy Centre due to Frodsham Panto show week from 5th to the 11th January. Tickets for Rapunzel are available from Ticketsource.

Music and Arts group are back on the 17th January with 'Local Music Heroes' Daniel Axworthy and David Lesley. Non-members welcome.

We say a fond farewell to the National Trust group who have been meeting here since 1988. The group have had many years of successful lectures and outings and have raised money for many of the Trust's properties such as Speke Hall, Dunham Massey and Biddulph Gardens.

The first edition of Frodsham News Forum is out now. Copies are available at the Community Centre

We are sad to announce that Jean Owen of Fluin Lane passed away after a long illness on the 14th November.

Jean worked and helped out with different groups at the Community Centre for over 40 years and was well known by many people in and around Frodsham.

The first aim of Meet and Eat is to connect men to learn cooking skills and share a meal. We know that there are numbers of men, who are alone, who are bereaved, who are carers, who would welcome this chance to improve their cooking skills and their diets and eat more varied and nutritious food.

We also know from Bee Friends Soup Lunches that there is something special about sharing a meal and this is enhanced when they, the men, have worked together to make that meal.

The project was piloted in spring and early summer 2024, and the second stage started in autumn 2024 with very positive feedback. The project will continue throughout 2025 with a slightly different format.

Our host will greet the group at the door with a cup of tea or coffee and then introduce the Guest Chef, who will work with them to prepare your lunch. The recipes are all designed for people to be able to cook at home, for one or in larger portions. Copies of the recipe will be provided at the end of the session. Each month a different chef and a different meal! But the same warm welcome!

The sessions run monthly on the first Monday of each month, 10.30am to 12.30pm. All food, tea and coffee are provided free of charge.
