

Frodsham Players A Man for All Seasons 1st to 4th April

Where does a man's loyalty lie? To his king, his god, or his own soul? A modern masterpiece, this tense play of conscience and political intrigue follows the tragic rise and fall of Sir Thomas More, Chancellor to King Henry VIII, in one of the bloodiest and most disruptive periods in our history. As England seeks to break with the decaying and corrupt Roman Church, can a great statesman remain true to himself even as his own country sinks into authoritarianism? Find out by coming to the Frodsham Players' Spring production of A Man For All Seasons.

1-4 April at 7.30pm in Frodsham Community Centre
(Box Office: www.frodshamplayers.com / 07775 211 836).

Frodsham Music & Arts Group

We are into the final third of this seasons programme. Doors open at 7pm and there is a bar to purchase a drink before the music starts at 7.45pm. For non-members it is £10 cash on the door or why not become a member on the night and get all 3 for only £18!

14th March: Vale Royal Singers with a 'Choral Extravaganza' directed by Margaret Corlett. Expect a wide ranging classical collection from this top quality vocal ensemble.

11th April: Sue Barker Annual Concert, 'The Wilde Recital'. After last seasons brilliance Andrew just has to return with Chopin and more

16th May: Jazzectomy with 'Let's Liven up the Night!' A mix of Jazz, swing, soul and good time music to end the Season.

The 25/26 season begins on the 26th September, nine evenings of varied live performance for just £18 for the year with nothing more to pay!
